Welcome to the Norwegian mountains!

Lions Camp Beitostølen is an international Lions youth camp for disabled youngsters, in cooperation with a big parasport event, Ridderrennet.

Ridderrennet arranges the RidderWeek – the worlds' largest annual winter sports week for people with visual or physical impairment. It takes place at Beitostølen, Norway in March/April every year.

Ridderrennet was founded by the Norwegian blind skier and musician, Erling Stordahl, and has been organized every year since 1964. Every year a total of 400-500 skiers with impairments take part, beginners as well as experienced skiers, from many different countries.
